

AS I THINK, SO I AM

I CAN imagine, dream and speak of Jesus as the one and only Potentate, the one and only Sovereign, with eyes of fire that consume, and a sword coming out of His mouth.

I CAN imagine, dream and speak of reading and absorbing books on three subjects of molecular and cellular biology; of the blood and the Blood; of the mind, thoughts and their effects on my body, His Body and my surroundings, whatever they may be.

I CAN imagine, dream and speak of writing a series of papers into a CD for the elect, the chosen, the escapees, the survivors, the remnant of His fire.

I CAN imagine, dream and speak of laying my hands on someone and they receive that which the King desires, whether being baptized in the Spirit, having their tongues loosened, their brains re-fired, their being set free from family curses, demonic spirits, or healed of deep wounds for not ever having a father.

I CAN imagine, dream and speak of walking and acting with power as Jesus did, and doing the things He did with reckless abandon.

I CAN imagine, dream and speak of someone driving by in a black Suburban and wanting to buy my place, and another calling out of the blue wanting an oil deal.

I CAN imagine, dream and speak of owning the Aussie place in Panguipulli.

I CAN imagine, dream and speak of owning the cabanas where my seed can work until they get on their feet and established. There may even be a large ranch for us all.

I CAN imagine, think and *spea*k of all of them being healthy and safe from all evil.

I CAN imagine, dream and speak of float-tubing with my grandsons and granddaughters on a fiord or lake in the mountains of Chile, talking about things that matter.

I CAN imagine, dream and speak of a black Danielsson L5W reel and a red Sage Method 12' switch rod.

I CAN imagine, dream and speak of a Hunter green Kodiak tied up on a large tree at water's edge.

I CAN imagine, dream and speak of growing old with the wife of my youth and the both of us enjoying the company of each other, in good health and grace.

I CAN, and I WILL CONTINUE to imagine, dream and speak ONLY these type of things and of seeing Him in all of His glory when my time is up.
